

Mississippi Wildlife

Giving Life a Second Chance

Come hear about the rehabilitation of native wildlife and migratory birds, the challenges wildlife face, and how the different seasons bring new challenges. Learn about the overall importance of the work we do.

GCRL Science Café

Tuesday, Jan. 27^h • 6:00-7:30 p.m.

GCRL Dining Hall

ALISON SHARPE

Director — Wildlife Care and Rescue Center

Alison Sharpe, a descendent of England, came to the U.S. when she was 15 years old. She has always had a great admiration for animals, especially the wildlife. She moved to Mississippi about 25 years ago and started the Wildlife Care and Rescue Center (WCRC) in 1994. She worked at The University of Southern Mississippi, Gulf Coast Research Laboratory's J.L. Scott Marine Education Center for 11 years as a Marine Education Specialist. She now works full time as a Veterinarian Technician and is the Director of the WCRC.

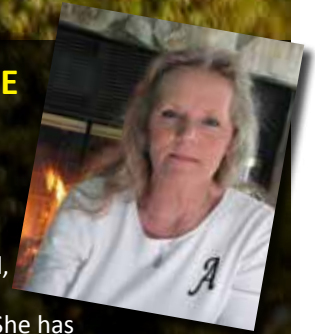

Photo credit: Aaron Zdenek